

A Network of Talent and Career Opportunities Focused within the M&A Sector

M&A

TALENT PARTNERS

Our goal at M&A Talent Partners is simple, to create a one-stop shop for professionals and hiring-managers looking to identify opportunities and talent within the Mergers and Acquisitions space. We partner with organizations to find the essential talent needed to drive growth and shape the landscape of their company's future.

The M&A market is expected to reach $5 trillion in value by 2025. To compete in this growing market, businesses need access to the best talent in their field.

M&A Talent Partners is a staffing and search firm that specializes in finding top talent for the M&A market. We have a deep understanding of the M&A landscape, and we know what it takes to find the right people for the job. We partner with organizations to find the essential talent they need to drive growth and shape the landscape of their company's future.

An individually developed hiring approach

Navigate an ever-evolving talent market with the confidence and flexibility of a consultative, personal partnership. We tailor our search to the talent and timeline that fit your needs.

A boundless network of skillset-focused talent

Target highly specific candidate backgrounds or a broader scope of professionals; our proprietary database gives you access to the most talented M&A professionals in the world. M&A Talent Partners represents experts at the top of their game.

A focus on intentional connections

Build authentic relationships. Our screenings are driven by a highly efficient interview process focused on a candidate's full profile: skillset, motivations, personal goals, and career desires. We take the time to understand each candidate and what opportunities best fit their profile.

Our Services

▶ Contingent Direct Hire

We listen to your organization's challenges, and we hear your strategic goals loud and clear. Our Contingent Direct Hire search services begin with a custom approach tailored to best identify your target candidate. Placement fees are 100% contingent upon the successful hiring of a candidate represented by M&A Talent Partners.

▶ Retained Search

Our retained search service fills urgent, time-sensitive, or critical positions. This service demonstrates to candidates a commitment to the position and is best employed when in-depth market research and high-level collaboration toward finding talent are required.

▶ Interim Resources

Our staffing services respond to your strategic needs at all levels, crafting nimble custom solutions focused on results. We provide contract-to-hire, staff augmentation, and consultative management resource services to help bridge projects or provide unique industry knowledge to your team temporarily.

Contact

Reach out and join the Network

Alexander Brehier

(954) 536-6225

info@matalentpartners.com